Carlos Franco (66-63-63—192/-18)

Posted rounds of 63-63 on the weekend for a 54-hole total of 18-under-par 192. It was one shy of the tournament record of 22-under-par 191 by Rocco Mediate in 2013.

His 63-63—126 this weekend was the lowest final two rounds on PGA TOUR Champions this year, surpassing Joe Durant's weekend total of 127 (17-under-par) at the 3M Championship.

He wins for the first time on PGA TOUR Champions and it comes in his 25th start on Tour. His best previous finish was a T8 at the DICK'S Sporting Goods Open earlier this year.

Was a four-time winner on the PGA TOUR -- 1999 COMPAQ Classic of New Orleans, 1999 Greater Milwaukee Open, 2000 COMPAQ Classic of New Orleans, and 2004 U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee.

Wins a PGA TOUR event for the first time since claiming the 2004 U.S. Bank Championship in Milwaukee, a span of 151 events without a win.

Was the PGA TOUR Rookie of the Year in 1999. Is one of two players to have won Rookie of the Year honors and claim a PGA TOUR Champions title, joining Woody Austin.

Earns a two-year exemption into the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai.

He becomes the sixth first-time winner in 2016, joining Woody Austin, Jesper Parnevik, Scott McCarron, Paul Broadhurst, Gene Sauers.

A native of Paraguay, he represented the country in numerous international events, including the World Cup and the Alfred Dunhill Cups.

A two-time member of the International team in the Presidents Cup.

Shaw Charity Classic R2 Notes...

Carlos Franco recorded 21 birdies which are the most in the four-year history of the event. The previous high was 20 by Bobby Clampett in 2013.

Bernhard Langer's T2 finish helped him pad his lead in the season-long Charles Schwab Cup race. Langer has now earned $2,272,659 and leads Miguel Angel Jimenez by $968,297.

With his T2 finish, Bernhard Langer has now finished in the top-10 in 13 of 16 starts this year, including eight in the top three. He is averaging an impressive $142,041 per start with four victories.

Bernhard Langer saw his streak of consecutive holes without a bogey go to 56 straight before he made his lone bogey of his round at No. 8. Including last week's Boeing Classic, Langer has made just three bogeys in his last 108 holes.

Bernhard Langer was a combined 12-under-par on the back nine for the tournament and his 27 holes included 10 birdies and an eagle.

Michael Allen's T2 finish was his third top-10 finish in this tournament in four starts. He was T5 in both 2013 and 2015.

Jeff Maggert, the 36-hole leader, closed with a 4-over-par 74 to finish T6.

Willie Wood, who started the week as the third alternate and gained entry when Bobby Wadkins withdrew, took full advantage of his good fortune. He posted rounds of 67-65-64 and finished fourth overall. It was his best finish in an event since he won the 2012 Pacific Links Hawai'i Championship.

Two players who open qualified on Tuesday earned top-10 finishes. Miguel Angel Martin and Jose Coceres each finished T6.

Scott Dunlap was T72 after an opening-round 2-over-par 72, but rebounded with rounds of 65-63 on the weekend to finish T6.

The field averaged 68.899 for the tournament, a slight improvement from last year's average of 69.198. The most difficult hole was No. 17 with an average score of 4.166 (+.166), while No. 11 was the easiest at 4.315 (-.685). It now ranks as the easiest hole on PGA TOUR Champions for the year. There were 16 eagles and 142 birdies for the event.
